The Cross, A Place of Decision

What does the cross of Jesus mean?

I'm free from the _____ of slavery and the blood that was shed won't let my _____ remain.

Jesus was beaten, made to carry His cross across the town and up a hill, nailed to the cross, ridiculed the whole time, and took on all our sin because He loves us.

The reason my Father loves me is that I give up my life. But I will take it back again. No one takes it from me. I give it up myself. I have the authority to give it up. And I have the authority to take it back again. – John 10:17-18

Christ didn't have any sin. But God made him become sin for us. So we can be made right with God because of what Christ has done for us. – 2 Corinthians 5:21

God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son. Anyone who believes in him will not die but will have eternal life. – John 3:16

All that is required is to believe.

Apply What You Heard:

Am I willing to abandon all my preconceived notions about the cross? Will I accept the freedom of the cross? Will I confess I am a sinner in need of a Savior? Will I admit I am incapable of saving myself? Can I surrender my will to Jesus? Am I ready to begin a new life?
