Core Values

Kairos Prison Ministry Core Values guide our behavior and actions as a board, staff, and volunteers:

Lay-led, Christ Centered Ministry

We are Christians who believe in the Holy Trinity and honor and live the teachings of the Bible and our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. We conduct the ministry while inviting all to attend as Guests or Participants in Weekends and program specific follow-on activities to build Christian community.

Empowerment while Building Accountability

While we empower the local volunteers to conduct the ministry, we are accountable to excellence and performance at the highest standards and authority of the ministry. We empower Guests or Participants to be accountable for their lives and be transformed by Jesus Christ.

Continuing Ministry Model to Build Community

We believe in the importance of enabling relationships to build community, thus our model includes the Weekend experience followed by Guests or Participants gathering regularly for accountability, support, and prayer. The full complement of the well-defined returning model is necessary for the community to prosper.

Trustworthy

We believe that we must be honest and truthful in our personal conduct as we represent the ministry consistently and with integrity. We are obedient to God in everything we do and obedient to the guidelines of the Kairos ministry programs.

Respect and Love

We believe in respecting each person with dignity while modeling Christ love. We practice 'Listen, Listen, Love, Love'.

Stewardship

We believe that we must be good stewards of our ministry's programs, funds, and resources, as well as our personal time, talent, and treasures.

Statement of Faith

The people of Kairos are called by God to share the love of Christ with those impacted by incarceration. Kairos encourages believers from a variety of Christian traditions to be volunteers in this Christ-filled ministry.

Kairos programs offer to prison residents, their families, and those who work with them, the opportunity to receive God's forgiveness through faith in Jesus Christ, and to grow in their faith and servanthood in Christian community.

We stand on the common ground of the following elements of faith:

We in Kairos believe:

The Bible is God's authoritative and inspired word for our faith and our lives.

In the Trinity of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

In the deity, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Friendship with God is a free gift, for God so loved the world that He gave His one and only son so that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life.

The love of Jesus Christ motivates His followers to provide food for the hungry, drink to the thirsty, welcome to the stranger, clothes for the naked and visits to the sick and those in prison.

In sharing the love and forgiveness of Jesus Christ with all incarcerated individuals, their families and to those who work with them inside and outside the correctional institution.

I. INTRODUCTION

A. SPIRITUAL AND BIBLICAL FOCUS

Biblical leaders are to be servants (2 Tim. 2:24). It is easy to rise to a position of prominence and get a sense certain work is beneath an individual. Jesus, however, shows us the true model when he washed the feet of his disciples. He did not lord his position over others but became a servant to humanity.

Biblical leaders are shepherds (Acts 20:28). Part and parcel of the shepherd's responsibility is to care for, feed, and nurture the flock. A shepherd protects the innocent and vulnerable sheep from ravenous beasts and leads the flock to green pastures, ensuring they are adequately fed.

Biblical leaders are teachers (1 Tim. 3:2). Just as an elder in a church is required to be able to communicate rational, biblical truths to others, civil servants in office must demonstrate the ability to present a coherent, biblically supported agenda for its citizens.

Biblical leaders are to be good stewards (Titus 1:7a). Stewardship refers to the administration of duties or goods in a person's care. As created beings of God, we are obliged to be stewards of all aspects of life that have been entrusted to us for our use. In the execution of stewardship, Scripture teaches us that we are to be faithful and wise, not turning entrustments into self-indulgent pursuits.

Biblical leaders are not to be greedy for gain (Titus 1:7b). Along with being faithful with other people's money is the idea that one does not have an unhealthy pursuit of personal, selfish gain.

Biblical leaders discipline when necessary (Acts 5:3; Titus 1:13). Leaders must have the courage to confront evil when necessary, wherever they may find it.

Biblical leaders imitate Christ (1 Cor. 11:1). One does not have to be a Christian to appreciate the flawlessness of Jesus' life and testimony. Christ was a man who preached grace, love, mercy, kindness, charity, selflessness, hospitality, equality, obedience, and virtue—characteristics that all humanity deems good. Leaders will never get the entirety of these qualities perfect as Jesus did, but they must continually strive to imitate Christ.

B. PURPOSE OF THIS DOCUMENT

The purpose of this document is to set forth detailed procedures for recruiting, vetting, and electing candidates for the Board of Directors; electing International Council and Board Officers; and establishing procedures for the Board-appointed position.

C. PURPOSE AND ROLES OF THOSE INVOLVED IN THE ELECTION PROCESS

1. Governance Committee:

The Kairos Bylaws, Article VII, Section 1B, direct the Governance Committee with “preparation of nominations for vacancies on the Board of Directors, the International Council at-large members (if needed), and nominations of Officers of the Board of Directors and the International Council, which are to be presented for vote at the meeting of the International Council and the Board of Directors.”

2. Governance Committee Chair:

- b. Assigns tasks to various committee members as required by the Governance Committee Charter and this document.

3. Governance Committee Members:

D. AUTHORITY

The authority to recruit, vet, nominate, and elect new candidates for the Board of Directors, the Board Appointees, the Board of Directors officers, and the International Council officers, rests within the Kairos Bylaws, the Governance Committee Charter, and this document.

II. ELECTION PROCEDURES

A. SELECTION OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS CANDIDATES

- 1. General. The Bylaws of Kairos Prison Ministry grant authority to the Governance Committee to prepare nominations for vacancies on the Board. The Governance Committee Charter, approved by the Board, grants responsibility to the Committee to identify and recruit qualified new candidates as nominees for election by the International Council.
- 2. Schedule of Tasks.

a. Immediately Following Annual Conference

- (1) Evaluate the skill sets of Board members who may be rolling off the Board at the next Annual Conference and determine if any desired skill set gaps will exist.
- (2) Identify skill set and diversity gaps that will exist for any reason. Diversity in race, gender, denomination, and geography is desired. The desire is to have no more than two persons on the Board at the same time from one state. These aspects should be fulfilled to the extent qualified candidates are found willing to be a candidate.

b. At Earliest Board Meeting – present any skill set gaps to the Board for their consideration.

c. August - December – Recruiting should be an ongoing effort. All Board members should be looking for potential future candidates for Board positions in the usual course of their Kairos activities. This timeline suggestion is for submission of names to the Governance Committee Chair for processing in accordance with these procedures.

3. Timely Selection of Board Appointee.

The Board automatically starts with the authority to appoint one Board member each year. There may be times when the Board may not be able to recruit a Board appointee or reach a consensus on a candidate who is brought forward. In that event, the following options are available to ensure that the Board is fully populated after Annual Conference:

OPTION 1: Board selects one person from list of Board member nominees or incumbents for appointment. Governance Committee notifies International Council of Annual Conference election of four (4) Board members and ratification request for specified Board appointee.

OPTION 2: Board opts to delay appointment (to be made from the final nominee list) until after International Council election. Governance Committee notifies International Council of Annual Conference election of four (4) Board members and a ratification request for one of the Board member candidates to be identified after the International Council election. The Board will meet following the election to make that choice, which will be put before the International Council before the conclusion of Annual Conference for ratification.

4. Subsequent Terms of a Board Appointee.

Board members appointed for a term may be re-elected to the Board for a 2nd or 3rd term either through the Selection of Board of Directors Candidates or via the Board Appointee Procedures. Under no circumstances will an appointed Board member serve more than three consecutive terms until an interval of at least three years has elapsed (Kairos Bylaws).

 - a. June - July – The Governance Committee Chair will provide a list of positions that are open for election and a list of candidates who are eligible to be elected. (Note: Time remaining on a Board member’s term limit or an incumbent’s re-election to the Board would be the primary limiting factors on ability to stand for election.) Candidates who were just elected to the Board can be nominated from the floor (Kairos Bylaws).
 - b. July – Board members will nominate individual Board members to serve as officers of the Board of Directors to the Governance Committee Chair.
