The Importance of Your Role in Kairos

No matter your role in Kairos it is very important to us and to every other member of the body. Kairos relies on people who are called by our Lord to serve and carry out the ministry. We strive to always give God our very best and to operate Kairos with excellence. The ministry is one of excellence because of our wonderful dedicated volunteers.

Evelyn Lemly, CEO

The roles vary depending on the activity of the day – team meetings, conducting Weekends, Continuing Ministry, Advisory Council, State Chapter Committee, International Council, or Board of Director. All these positions are held by dedicated volunteers who agreed to carry out specific duties for the role they were asked or elected to do.

Do you know your role and what your job is all about? Do you know how important you carrying out your role with excellence is to everyone on the team and to Kairos as a whole? If not, please take the time to review your role, pray it through, prepare for it, and carry it out to the best of your ability. And when you're not sure or need help – Ask someone!

There are others depending on you to do your Kairos role well – guests and participants, Department of Corrections, Department of Juvenile Justice, Wardens/ Superintendents, Chaplains, Security Officers, and on and on. Sometimes we forget that those we serve and are around as we serve are watching and can tell if we are prepared and ready to take on our role. Many times it's not about our experience it's about our preparation that brings about their wonderful Kairos moments.

One of the roles we all have is to represent Jesus Christ in all we do whether in a Kairos meeting or while in the room with the guests/ participants, or behind the scenes in support, or serving on an Advisory Council, State Chapter Committee, or…

In Kairos it's election time. The volunteers will be electing their Advisory Council and State Chapter Committee members this fall. Please don't just fill a slot but pray about it and fulfill the role so that your role is done with excellence. Step forward and say yes to serving and trust God will prepare you and guide you. And always remember to fix your eyes on Jesus and run a great race for our Lord, Jesus Christ.

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, [2] fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. [3] Consider him who endured such opposition from sinners, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart. Hebrews 12: 1-3 NIV

A MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD CHAIR

The Role of a Governing Board

In the world of Kairos there is always something else to learn. If we reach a point where we have it all figured out…look out…because either you have stopped growing and learning or God is about to send you in a new direction.

Serving on the Kairos Board of Directors is a confirmation that God continues to use us and bless us through new experiences. I imagine that some of you have probably served on boards before, but the Kairos Board is different. Many boards are "working "boards, involved in the day to day decisions and actions undertaken by the organization. You spend time involved in the business of getting things done at the ground level. Honestly, in our not so distant past the Kairos Board was tasked with a great many of these types of activities. Thankfully today the Board can focus on making sure our organization is true to our mission, vision and long-range goals, seeking spiritual discernment and direction and leading as Christ lead…by being servant leaders. Our job is to select and support our CEO, work to provide effective planning, define policies and governance of the ministry, ensure we have adequate financial resources, and monitor and strengthen our programs.

Steve Smith, Board Chair

Without exception, all who serve on our current Board of Directors are still involved on a local level in one of our three programs (one ministry - three programs). When we are back home in our states and involved as volunteers we are not acting as Board members. At no time other than when we are doing the work of the Board, are we anything more than any other volunteer. We have no authority as a Board member when we are volunteering, or should we be treated any differently than any other volunteer. And as our manual clearly emphasizes no job is less than or greater than any other. Hopefully we are all doing exactly what God has called us to do and our only goal should be obedience to that call. In getting to work with the men and women who serve on the Kairos Board I can also say that, without exception, none of them became involved in Kairos because they dreamed of being Board members. They serve because God saw fit to use them in a new way and they are there out of obedience to that call. No Board member ever has any authority as an individual member of the Board. Only the Board as a body can govern.

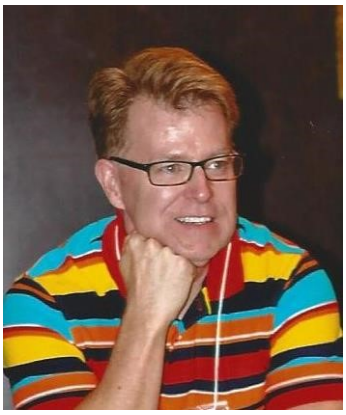
When my grandmother turned 90 years old she said to me, "goodness child I never meant to live that long." I can say honestly that I never meant to be on the Kairos Board. I began my involvement in Kairos because I was sure that God was calling me to be the music leader on Pine Bluff Kairos #4 in 1995. The only thing I was sure of was that I felt His call on my life as I had never felt it before. I had no idea what that was going to be like, and I certainly didn't know I would still be going into prisons 24 years later. I was very happy doing music and got to a point where I could almost do it in my sleep…then God asked me to do a different job, then He drew me into Kairos Torch for a few years, and so it goes for most of us I'm sure. Thank God that He loves us enough to use us and in using us He blesses. I thank God for His call.

Why Do You Volunteer With Kairos?

Stop and think for a minute about "Why I volunteer with Kairos." Then take out your cell phone and do a short (less than 1 minute) video with your answer! Send it to marketing@kpmi.org. We need at least 20 more of these clips. (By sending us the video you are giving us permission to use it).

Group Dynamics

By Craig Combs, Men's Ministry Coordinator



Did you know that there is a lot of science and psychology behind the Kairos program that insures it impacts the participants? I have no idea if the "nine old men" did this on purpose, or if the Holy Sprit just did it.

The theory of Group Dynamics is well known, well respected and accepted. It basically states that as a bunch of folks come together for a purpose, they go through some stages as the group spends time together. There are four stages that we go through during Team Formation Meetings, and we go through the same four stages during the Kairos Weekend. Not that one step is more important than any other, but you must start well to finish well. I am going to talk about the first step of Group Dynamics called Inclusion.

What is inclusion? Inclusion refers to a cultural and environmental feeling of belonging. It can be measured by the extent to which members of a group feel valued, respected, accepted and encouraged to fully participate. We all have the need to belong; we want to fit in and have a group. People who live in prison are just the same as everyone else - that is one of the reasons they join a gang. They need to fit in, to be included in a group.

What does inclusion 'feel' like for them? If you are married, remember the first time you met the in-laws and how you felt? Do I fit in, will they like me, will I like them, what does it take for them to like me? Yea, that is what the participants are thinking on the first night of Kairos. They wonder if they will be included or not. They wonder if they even want to be included. They wonder if they are too different than the team of if they have done such bad stuff to be included. Therefore, the job of the team is to make them feel included and do nothing that makes them feel excluded. That is why one to one greeting is still best practice. That is why we don't sing on Thursday. That is why we announce their names and give them a name tag - they didn't have to do anything to be a part of the group! That is why during introductions, we are to keep them short and sweet and don't preach or tell them they need Jesus. By doing that, a non-Christian would just hear that they are different, and you are telling them you are better than they are. That is why most of the serious part of the time Thursday is spent in chapel - so they can just listen and process what is being said (which I might add all the talks are very Christian) and not have any demands made of them nor do they have to make any decisions. That is why we do everything we can to make a connection with them and find some common interests. That is why the greeter should answer their questions and tell them what will happen so they are more comfortable. Remember when someone says something in their introduction that applies to you as well - don't you talk to them about it the first opportunity you can? I know I do. Everything we do is to show them they are 'in' and that we want them to come back on Friday. That is why, if you serve any drinks, you remember what they like and how they like it. You can hand it to them on Friday morning, and that speaks volumes about how much we want them to be included in this group called Kairos. Everything we do on Thursday (and in reality, also the rest of the time) should yell "we are glad you are here, we want you here, and we love you…even if you aren't like us."

I can't help but wonder when gang members come to a Kairos Weekend and feel welcomed and included, that is why they often want out of the gang and take some difficult steps to do so. They now have a new group that is safer!

Let's practice inclusion inside and outside of prison, ok?

Using Our Kairos Tools for Recruiting

By Gina Brockmeyer, Women's Ministry Coordinator

Last week several of us here in the International Office received a phone call from an inmate who had recently been released from prison. The gentleman was calling the office to obtain phone numbers and other personal information regarding several Kairos volunteers he had met during his involvement with Kairos at one of the institutions where he had served his time. Those Kairos volunteers had instructed the inmate to "look them up" when he was released, and according to him they also promised him they would help him secure a job and get a car.

As Kairos volunteers we must remember the mission of Kairos Prison Ministry International is to share the transforming love and forgiveness of Jesus Christ to impact the hearts and lives of incarcerated men, women and youth, as well as their families, to become loving and productive citizens of their communities. Our relationship with the inmates and families we serve is a spiritual one, and we must always remember that Kairos is not a re-entry ministry. That is not what God has called us to do. There are other ministries and organizations who specialize and are better equipped to re-entry services for men and women who are returning home, because that is what God has called them to do. They work hard at developing valuable contacts and resources which they provide to inmates both before and after their release from prison. Their ministries are called to work with inmates to make their transition back into society successful. When Kairos volunteers make promises to inmates who are about to be released, offering to help them find a job, a car, a place to live, or to help them in any way, we are setting them up to be disappointed because that is not what we do. And when volunteers make those type of statements and promises to inmates, and then there is no follow through it can adversely affect the inmate's adjustment following his or her release. Additionally, and more importantly, when they call the International Office and we tell them Kairos does not provide the type of help they were promised, and that we cannot give out the phone numbers of our volunteers due to confidentiality, they get angry. They don't understand why volunteers have made promises to them that they can't keep, they feel betrayed and lied too, and quite frankly, they may question everything they have been told by Kairos volunteers. It really changes their opinion of the ministry, and that is not good.

As Kairos volunteers we must be intentional about how we interact with the inmates we meet while serving both on our weekends and during continuing ministry events. We must never make promises, or statements that can be misconstrued as promises, to inmates or their families about Kairos helping them with anything, either while the inmate is incarcerated or upon their release. It is against the policies of Kairos, and if you are volunteering at a correctional institution, it is against the Department of Corrections and/or Department of Juvenile Justice's rules to be involved with inmates who have been released and are still on paper because they are still considered to be "in custody."

In the Kairos Riverbanks, found in all our program manuals, we state volunteers are to be advocates for Christ. We are to keep our relationships with the inmates spiritual. We are there to listen to them and to love them, and for them to see Jesus in us.

Trust me when I say, we all understand that volunteers get to know inmates and their families, and it is understandable that you want to do everything we can to help them, but we must resist the temptation to do so. We must remember that the best way we can help the inmates and the families we serve is to be who we say we are, and to do what we say Kairos does. We must stay true to the mission of Kairos, and let God handle the rest.

God Can't Fix What We Won't Face

By Kevin Resnover, Youth Ministry Coordinator

Before I start in on this article here's a Personal Disclaimer: "Any statement with "God Can't" in it should be approached with extreme caution! The very nature of who God is speaks to the obvious… 'He can do anything'! However, because God is who He is, and His voice is a creative voice, He cannot lie! And because He can't lie, there are other things He can't do either…but I'll leave that conversation for another time.

For several years I struggled with what felt like unbelievable harshness in many of the writings of the Old Testament. I was hard-pressed to appreciate God as a loving Father against the backdrop of the biblical stories describing His intense wrath. Nor could I resolve how I would ever be able to find His indulgence or to be in the audience of such a Holy and Righteous God. It wasn't godly respect I had; it was sheer terror, and I was frightened to death of Him.

I wrestled daily with achieving perfection so that I could at least be recognizable to Him in a way that did not draw his anger. Strangely enough, the more I sought personal perfection the more distant I felt from Him and the fear just intensified. I finally learned the art of masking and concealment. Instead of facing those internal (and external) flaws I learned to bury my face in the sand every time an imperfection was revealed. If I kept my failures at bay, I thought I might be able to minimize His attention which was sure to bring about His righteous-indignation. It was like the little child that closed their eyes as tight as they could and announced; "You can't see me now!"

The story of King Saul and King David was what helped me began to see God in a different light, and better understand the purpose of the Old Testament Scriptures. As I emotionally engage I & II Samuel over the years, I've come to understand that while David's indiscretions seemed far greater than his predecessor Saul, it was David's ability to face his failures; admit them to God and verbalize… "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me." that mobilized God to not only fix his heart, but also change David's fate. In contrast, Saul was unwilling to face his blunders and repent of his failure. Because God promised man free will, He could not and was not released to act on Saul's behalf in the same manner that He was with David.

I have since come to understand that the Old Testament was not written to instill terror in our hearts, but to show us what is in our hearts. God's Word teaches us that we need to face and surrender our issues to Him so that through His redemptive power He can save us.

The mask used on the Kairos Torch Weekend is a commanding visual that draws the youth towards a deep self-introspection and paves an avenue for them to face their truths and even their personal shortfalls. The Christian love emptied out on these youth by the Kairos volunteers gives the youth a safe and caring environment to face, expose and surrender those negative behaviors to God. It is then that God is able and faithful to heal the iniquities and actions that the youth have not been able to shake themselves from.

The positive is that God can fix it if we're willing to face it!

A MESSAGE FROM THE INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL PRESIDENT

By Lisa Trahan, International Council President

We serve an amazing God who loves us unconditionally, no questions asked. He invites us and equips us to love one another over and over again without reason or condition. Do we recognize those moments in our day to day life? Often they come quietly in the ordinary tasks. We can miss it if we anticipate the extra-ordinary encounter rather than being present in our chaotic lives.

Each of us have experienced the grace-filled moments as we enter prison to serve on a Kairos Weekend, or see hope in the eyes of our youth as they experience God's love. The grace-filled moments are offered to us daily just where we are. It's in the midst of our daily routine we are called to respond with love and compassion to those God places in our path. I am reminded of the "Gumball Theory" shared by a friend whom God used to magnify that every moment, every encounter and every person is His grace moment for us.

Gumball Theory
Flory Reynolds

God's Kingdom is like a big gumball machine and you are one of His gumballs. You may be the green one or the purple one or the red one. Notice how many other gumballs touch you. Each gumball touches you at one point and many gumballs touch you at one time. God gives his grace to every touch. If you decide to ignore the gumballs in your life and move away from the touch, notice what happens – everything shifts and another gumball takes your place. That gumball now receives God's grace for that touch. You'll get another chance because the gumballs have shifted and now other gumballs touch you. But you won't get that chance again.

God needs you.

You are His hands to pat another on the back; you are His feet to walk across the street to help someone; you are His heart to make someone feel special; you are His spirit as you pray for someone. Be a good gumball.

Receive God's graces.

Be attentive to the gumballs God puts in your life. Look at all those gumballs next to you right now. Be vigilant and don't miss any of them. A missed gumball is a missed grace.

JUST MAYBE YOU'RE BEING WOOED BY GOD TO BE THE GUMBALL ON YOUR ADVISORY COUNCIL, STATE CHAPTER COMMITTEE OR INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL.

WE'D LOVE TO HAVE YOU JOIN US!!!

Recruitment Success Stories

Red Gilbert and Greg Longo from Texas spent a recent Saturday sharing about Kairos with a diverse ethnic men's group at a local Christian Church. They recruited 7 new team members for their Fall Weekend. They said, "It's honestly all about expanding your comfort zone. God is good!"

What is your recruitment success story? Send it to us at marketing@kpmi.org and we may feature it in a future newsletter or on social media!

WHY KAIROS VOLUNTEERS SHOULDN'T ADVOCATE

It is very important that every Kairos volunteer understands the guidelines related to advocacy and the wisdom behind them.

What is advocacy? Advocacy means writing a support letter, writing or attending the Parole Board/hearing, going to any court or judicial hearing to show support, giving an inmate money (directly or indirectly), or even doing a favor for an inmate - to name a few things. Please know that when someone advocates for an inmate by representing them (verbally, written, or by presence), that by its very nature involves becoming an advocate opposed to the Department of Corrections (DOC) or the Department of Juvenile Justice (DJJ). We serve at the invitation of the DOC/DJJ and nothing we do should put our ministry in jeopardy. The Kairos Inside Manual (page 113 #29), the Kairos Outside Manual (page 7 #9) and the Kairos Torch Manual (page 6 #6) all say that we should always be only advocates for Christ. The Kairos Inside Manual states that we serve under the Warden and their rules (page 10 #9).

Kairos guidelines on advocacy are the result of accumulated wisdom gained from over 40 years of experience. In many cases, this wisdom comes from volunteers who found themselves in uncomfortable or perhaps even dangerous positions, created by innocently choosing a path that seemed acceptable at the time. Volunteers often find themselves becoming very close to those to whom they minister. But such closeness often leads to inappropriate requests and can take the volunteer down the wrong path. The wisdom of Kairos tells volunteers to avoid such situations by never choosing this path in the first place. The DOC/DJJ knows that too much familiarity or favoritism causes problems for them and prison security. They also recognize this behavior and so volunteer documents and/or training that was completed to be a DOC/DJJ volunteer often says something along the lines of "maintain a professional relationship" and includes some training about acceptable Inmate/Volunteer relationships. By becoming a DOC/DJJ volunteer, you agree to follow their rules or your volunteer privileges will be removed. If you are on someone's visitor list, be sure you know the rules for volunteering in another facility.

Kairos wisdom concerning not advocating for an inmate can be found in many places, including the Code of Conduct (page 8): "No volunteer or group of volunteers may sign petitions, join demonstrations, challenge the federal, state or local laws, take political positions, or advocate for a person(s) or the incarcerated using the name of Kairos or on behalf of Kairos."

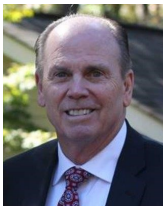
There are also specific references to avoid advocacy for the incarcerated in the Kairos Manuals. A Kairos Ministry Riverbank (page 6 #7 of the Kairos Inside Manual) states that volunteers are advocates for Christ and that volunteers are not to 'lose your focus and become an advocate for prisoners' which is exactly what is happening if a parole letter is written; at that point you are no longer an advocate for Christ, but for an inmate. Even if Institutions allow certain activities, Kairos Inside Riverbanks on page 10 says to avoid such things.

There is a DO NOT list on Page 114 of the Kairos Inside Manual and #31 prohibits a Kairos Volunteer from being an "Advocate for a resident at trials, parole hearings, or write letters in support of a resident."

Kairos Inside, Kairos Outside and Kairos Torch volunteers should never advocate for any loved one or friend of a participant/guest at a trial, parole hearing, or by writing a letter of support for them. In the case of Kairos Outside, you may know the person asking, but your only knowledge of their family members, loved ones or friends is based solely on what they have told you. Even if this was permissible, which it is not, you don't have the knowledge to advocate for them. Don't advocate.

What happens if you do advocate for an inmate? The DOC/DJJ can remove the volunteer from serving in the prison. The DOC/DJJ may not allow Kairos to operate in the facility (or facilities or the State). All will lead to permanent dismissal of the volunteer by Kairos.

John I. Harrison, On Monday,



August 19, 2019, John I. Harrison, loving husband, father and grandfather, passed away peacefully in his sleep at the age of 71.

John was born on March 3, 1948 in Ocilla, GA to Theodore and Julia Ann (Henderson) Harrison. John graduated from Leon High School (c/o '66). He earned his BA degree in Math from Florida State University and went on to earn his Master of Accounting degree (also from Florida State). He also was the founder of the Society of American Small Business Accountants (SASBA) which currently offers franchise benefits to CPAs across America.

John was an active member of St. Peter's Anglican Cathedral. He frequently volunteered his time with Kairos, a prison church ministry. John was set to be inducted into Leon High School's football Hall of Fame—an honor of which he was very proud. John is survived by his wife of 47 years, Arden Armstrong Harrison; two daughters, Shea Chanon (and husband Paul) of Marietta, GA, and Ansley Christianson (and husband Chad) of Ocala, FL; six grandchildren, Railey Chanon, Maysie Chanon, Ansley Chanon, Caden Christianson, Chance Christianson and Cannon Christianson. John achieved much throughout his life in academics, sports, and his career, but he was especially proud of his family. He was devoted to his wife and could not have been prouder of his children and grandchildren. He will be missed beyond words by his family and his many friends.

A memorial service will be at 1 pm on Saturday, August 24th at St. Peter's Anglican Cathedral, located at 4784 Thomasville Road in Tallahassee. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Kairos Prison Ministry in care of St. Peter's Anglican Cathedral, 4784 Thomasville Road, Tallahassee, FL 32312.

Kathleen Hervochon, passed away on the morning of Aug. 14 2019 at her home in Damariscotta. Born on March 28, 1947 in Newark, N.J., she was the daughter of Edward and Anne (Racioppi) Rogers.

Kathy grew up in New Jersey, attended local schools, and earned a teaching degree from Seton Hall University in South Orange, N.J. in 1969. While in college, she met her husband George on a blind date, and they married shortly after her graduation. Kathy and George recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Kathy and George moved to Maine in 1976 with their two young daughters, bravely following their dream to build a life in the villages of Newcastle and Damariscotta, which they had previously visited.

After building a home for his family on Bunker Hill Road, George established a construction company later known as Hervochon Construction. Together, George and Kathy designed and created homes, vacation properties, and commercial buildings for over 35 years. In 2004, they had the honor of designing and creating the new worship space at St. Patrick's Church in Newcastle, where they were longtime parishioners.

At St. Patrick's, Kathy was the first female Eucharistic minister, led the CCD program, and taught religious education on Glidden Street for many years. Kathy worked at several local schools including Great Salt Bay and St. John's Catholic in Brunswick. She had an enormous capacity for love, faith in God, and a compassion for others. She was her fullest self when she was with children, using humor and kindness to connect genuinely.

Kathy was known for giving beautifully packaged gifts, accompanied by notes featuring her recognizable one-of-a-kind handwriting which was a work of art in and of itself. She was brilliantly creative, and her commitment to taking everything up a notch made everything she did uniquely special.

She will be deeply missed by her husband George; daughters, Gwyn of Boise, Ida., Anni Pat McKenney and her husband Chris of Newcastle, and Megan Kleinick and her husband Kevin of Chicago, Ill.; grandchildren, Patrick and Katherine McKenney, and Emmy and Sophie Kleinick; brother, Brian Rogers of Randolph, N.J.; cousin, Billy Mecca of Asbury Park, N.J.; and many friends throughout the community.

Evan Michael Jones, was born on November 3, 1965. He joined his Heavenly Father on Sunday, May 12, 2019. Known for his effervescent personality, quick wit and his kind and compassionate spirit, he will be missed dearly and forever in our hearts.

Evan graduated in 1984 from Vestavia Hills High School in Vestavia Hills, Alabama. He went on to earn a Bachelor's degree in History and English Literature from South Alabama University in 1989. He was a member of Pi Kappa Phi fraternity. He made meaningful and lasting friendships during that time that he cherished deeply.

After college, he began a successful career in the information technology field starting his own business, Integrated Technology Group. He later became an instructor of Microsoft Engineering at Virginia College where he shared his vast knowledge to grow new talent in the field. Since 2008, he served as Information Security Officer at the Veterans Administration where he held CISA, CISSP, CRISC, CAP, CTT, and MCP certifications. This was not only a job for him but a privilege to serve veterans he loved and respected.

Evan was a loving and devoted husband to Cindy Magee Jones for 16 years. Their love for one another was immeasurable with Christ in the center of their marriage. In 2007, they were blessed with an amazing son, John Michael Jones. Evan had many accomplishments in life but his proudest was being a father to Michael. He was actively involved in all that Michael did. Evan and Michael shared a love for the outdoors and became active in the Boy Scouts of America. With a shared belief in the scouting values of service, community engagement and leadership development, Evan served as a Cub Scout Den leader for 3 years, a Trained Cub Scout Range Master at Warren Hood Scout Reservation, a Trained NRA Shotgun and Rifle Scout Instructor and a Scout Charter Organization Representative. During his tenure with the Boy Scouts of America, he mentored countless youth teaching them, by example, to live honorable lives.

Evan enjoyed many hobbies. As a car enthusiast, he was a member of the BMW Car Club. He was a gifted soloist and enjoyed performing with the Jackson Choral Society. He enjoyed life to the fullest and loved spending time with his family and friends, often cooking their favorite meals. He also enjoyed sailing and photography.

Evan was a devoted Christian. He loved the Lord and his church family. As an active member of Crossgates United Methodist Church, he served as a member of the church council and enjoyed singing in the choir. His lifelong wish to sing at Carnegie Hall was fulfilled when he and his church choir had the honor of experiencing this together. He volunteered as a song leader at the Methodist Cursillo of Mississippi and was also active in Kairos Prison Ministry. His life was one of service to others. He selflessly gave of himself to those he loved and his community. He loved people and was a proud American. Most of his friends and loved ones know that Evan also enjoyed a good political debate! He became very passionate about politics in college and went on to manage a few campaigns.

Left to cherish his memory and continue his legacy of love and service is his wife, Cindy; Son, Michael; Mother, Patricia Byrd Driesbach (Ron); Mother-In-Law, Linda Magee (Nana); Sister, Virginia Jones; Sister, Charlotte Owens (Jim); Sister-In-Law, Denise Magee (Tim) and a host of friends, coworkers and loved ones.

He is preceded in death by his Father, Johnny Mac Jones; and his Father-In-Law, John Henry Magee.

The family would like to thank all the friends and family for their outpouring of love and support during this difficult time. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to any of the following: Hartfield Academy: Memo-Financial Aid for Michael Jones, MS Methodist Cursillo, or Crossgates United Methodist Church (Scout Ministry or Music Ministry).

KAIROS TRAINING

Advanced Kairos Training is for Kairos Inside, Kairos Outside, and Kairos Torch volunteers who are in or will be in a Weekend leadership role, including Advisory Council or State Chapter positions, anywhere within the Kairos program.

Advanced Kairos Training gives the who, what, and why of the Kairos ministry. Kairos policy requires that all Weekend leaders must have completed the entire training course 12 to 24 months prior to leading a Weekend.

PRINCIPLE STATEMENTS CONCERNING ADVANCED KAIROS TRAINING EXPENSES

1. All Advanced Kairos Trainings are essentially free to any and all attendees. However, paying the expenses of an attendee for training is borne by the state sending its volunteers to a training in or out of its local state. This means that all Advisory Councils or State Chapter Committees should be budgeting for any training expenses deemed necessary for their future Weekend Leaders or other attendees that the Advisory Council or State Chapter Committee wants to attend.
2. Advisory Councils or State Chapter Committees should encourage their volunteers (who may have been used to paying out of their own pocket previously to a Host State) to make their donations to their local Advisory Council instead to help build the budget to allow for more volunteers to attend trainings.

Be Sure to Bring Your Program Manual With You to Training!

You must complete the entire Advanced Kairos Training in order to receive your certificate and become a Weekend Leader.
